OUR COUNTY NOMINEE.

As will be seen by reference to the proocedings of the Democratic meeting held in this Town last Tuesday, the Democracy of Pasquotank County have nominated WILLIAM A. HARNEY, Esq., as their standard-bearer in the pending contest for a seat in the House of Commons of the next Legislature. Mr. H. is a gentleman of intelligence, and a Democrat of the right stripe. His f. ankness of manner and his generous spirit have won for him the respect of both parties in this community; and, take him all in all, he is unquestionably the most acceptable candidate that could have been presented. It is not well to be over-sanguine-and this is known to be a strong K. N. county; but Mr. H. will poll a powerful vote, if he does not beat his competitor.

The Democracy of this county had a good time of it at their meeting in this Town on Tuesday last. The regular business was transacted with smoothness and harmony, and the speeches of Messrs. Jordan and Johnson were perfect Know-Nothing blisters. Mr. Jordan must have touched raw places upon some of the thinskinned gentlemen of the opposition, for he was interrupted several times during the S. E. WILLIAMS, of Alamance, R. P. WARING, of Mecklenburg. W. W. AVERY, of Burke. there, of course, with some of his everlasting questions. Indeed, we begin to consider that gentleman a sort of appendagean outside appendage certainly-of our meetings. We really wish that somebody would get up a meeting for his benefit, and let him deliver himself, all at once. We heard him declare in a Know-Nothing meeting, that he wanted a crowd to speak appointments to address the people of this to, and, while we protest that he has no District at the following times and places: right to expect Democrats to get up large meetings for his benefit, we should yet be glad if his sympathisers (if he has enough of them) would do so, and afford him an opportunity of letting off his steam. For a no-party n.an, he is a queer politician.

TION .- FIRST DAY.

CINCINNATI, June 2. At a quarter before 12 o'clock cannot were fired as a signal for the assembling of the Convention. At 12 o'clock precisely the arsemblage was called to order, by R. McLANE, of Maryland. Mr. RICHARDSON, of Illinois, nominated Sam'l Medary, of Ohio, for temporary Chairman. Carried unanimously. Mr. Hall, of Mass., called for the read ng of the call for the Convention.

While the call was being read by Mr English, of Indiana, a sudden uproar arose at the door of the hall, and a crowd rushed into the room, fighting and wrangling in the direct confusion. This crowd proved to be the Benton delegation from Missouri, resolved to force an entrance by violence. They knocked down the doorkeeper, and rushed in, headed by ex-Gov. Price.

For a few minutes a scene of confusion impossible to describe prevailed. Members jumped upon their chairs, and it seemed as though a serious riot was about to take place. After a while, however, quiet was restored and the reading of the call proceeded with.

Mr. McLane, of Maryland, stated that when the oredentials of the Missouri delegates were presented, the Committee of Arrangements gave tickets of admission to the delegation which presented prima facie evidence of their regular election, and refused them to others. New York also appears with two sets; but as the committee could not decide which set was entitled to admission, they declined to give tickets to either, unless they arranged among themselves, as was done in the case of the Misissippi delegation. Both delegations from New York now awaited admission.

Sam'l Medary, on taking the chair, re turned thanks for the honor done him. The Rev. Mr. Nicholson of Cincinnati vas introduced, and delivered a prayer. Messrs. ALEX. B CLETHERFIELD, Ala. and W. F RICHIE, Va., were elected temporary secretaries.

Mr HARRIS, Ill., moved the appointment of a committee on credentials, consistof one delegate from each uncontested State, to be selected by the various delega-

Mr. RICHARDSON, of Illinois, rose and said he did not wish to interfere with the quarrels of States, but the Convention owed to itself, to its dignity and propriety, that no person should be allowed to force an entrance into this Hall over the power of the doorkeeper. It should protect itself rom violence and insult.

Mr. HALL, of Missouri, one of the delerates whe had forced the door, arose to speak, but the Chairman refused to recognize him, saying the gentleman (Mr. Hall) must present his grievances to the Committee on Credentials. Mr Hall made another effort to speak, out was interrupted with cries of 'Order.'

Mr. Price, of Missouri, rose and said the delegation submitted to the decision of the chair, and at once withdrew.

Mr. Bocock, of Virginia, called attention to the fact that Missouri's seats were contested, and that Missouri had been allowed to appoint a committee man. The Missouri member was consequently withdrawn. The following Committee on Organization was then appointed:

The Committee reiterate and reaffirm following added resolutions:

OPPOSITION TO THE AMERICAN PARTY. And whereas, since the foregoing declaration was uniformly adopted by our predecessors in National Conventions, an adverse political and roligious test has been secretly organized by a party claiming to be exclusively American, it is proper that the American Democracy should clearly define its relations thereto, and declare its determined opposition to all secret political societies, by whatever name they may

And hence a political crusade in the nineteenth century, and in the United States of America, against Catholies and foreign born, is neither justified by the past history or the future prospects of the country, nor in unison with the spirit of toloration r government

That we reiterate with renewed energy of purpose the well considered declarations of former Conventions upon the sectional issue of domestic slavery, and concerning the reserved rights of the States,-

1. That Congress has no power under the Constitution, to interfere with or control the domestic institutions of the several States, and that such States are the sole proper judges of everything apportaining to their own affairs, not prohibited by the Constitution: that all efforts of the abolitionists or others, made to induce Congress to interfere with questions of slavery, or to take incipient steps in relation thereto, are calculated to lead to the most alarming and dangerous consequences; and that all such efforts, have an inevitable teudency to diminish the happiness of the people. and endanger the stability and permanency of the Union, and ought not to be countenanced by any friend of our political in-

That the foregoing proposition covers, and was intended to embrace, the whole subject of slavery agitation in Congress; and therefore, the Democratic party of the Union, standing on this national platform, will abide by and adhere to a faithful execution of the acts known as the Compromise Measures, settled by the Congress of 1850; "the act for reclaiming fingitives from service or labor," included; which act being designed to carry out an express provision of the Constitution, cannot, with fidelity thereto, be repealed or so changed as to destroy or impair its effi-

3. That the Domocratic party will resist all attempts at renewing, in Congress or out of it, the agitation of the slavery question, under whatever shape or color the attempt may be made.

4. That the Democratic party will faitl. fully abide by and uphold the principles laid down in the Kentucky and Virginia resolutions of 1798, and the report of Mr. Madison to the Virginia Legislature, in 1799; that it adopts those principles as constituting one of the main foundations of its political creed, and is resolved to earry them out in their obvious meaning

And he baried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Bethpeor; but no man knoweth of his sepulchre unto this da y .- Deut. xxxiv. 6.

By Nebo's lonely mountain, Oa this side Jordan's wave, In a vale in the land of lab. There lies a lonely grave. And no man that that sopulcare And no man saw it e'or : For the angels of God upturned the sod, And laid the deal man there.

That was the grandest funeral That ever pass I on earth, But no man heard the trampling Or saw the train go forth. Noiselessly as the daylight Comes when the night is done, And the crimson streak on ocean's check Grows into the great sun;

Noiselessly as the spring time Her crown of verdure weaves, And all the trees on the bills Open their thousand leaves: So, without sound of music. Or voice of them that wept, Silently down. from the mountain's crown, The great procession swept.

Perchange the bald old eagle, On grey Bethpeor's height, Out of his rocky eyric Looked on the wondrous sight Perchance the lieu stalking Still shuns the hallowed spot: For beast and bird have seen and heard-That which man knoweth not.

But when the warrior dieth, His comrades in the war. With arms reversed and mulfed drum, Follow the funeral car. They show the banners taken. They tell his battles won, And after him lead his masterless steed.

While peals the minute gun,

Amid the noblest of the land Men lay the sage to rest. And give the bard an honor'd place With costly marble drest. In the great minster transent. Where lights like glories fall, And the sweet choir sings, and the organ rings

Along the emblazoned wall. This was the bravest warrior That ever buckled sword;

This the most gifted poet That ever breath'd a word; And never earth's philosopher Traced with his golden pen On the deathless page truths half so sage As he wrote down for men.

And had he not high honor? The hill-side for his pall, To lie in state while angels was With stars for tapers talk. And the dark rock pines like tossing plumes Over his bier to wave, And God's own hand in that lenely land To lay him in the grave!

In that deep grave without a name, Whence his uncoffin'd clay, Shall break again, most wondrous thought, Before the judgment day; And stand with glory wrapped around On the hills he never trod, And speak of the strife that won our life With th'incarnate Son of God.

O lonely tomb in Moab's land, O dark Bethpeor s hill. Speak to these curious hearts of ours, And teach them to be still, God hath his mysteries of grace. Ways that we cannot tell; He hides them deep like the secret sleep

Of him he loved so well.
